APOSTOLIC INTERCESSORS NETWORK DISCIPLINE PROCESS

Apostolic Intercessors Network (AIN) is a relational alignment network. We reserve the right to discipline members in the following areas:

1. Moral failure
2. Lack of integrity
3. Behavior not becoming to an intercessor
4. Breaking confidentiality
5. Misuse of AIN membership information
6. Not responding to the Team Director or AIN Leadership
7. Failure to pay AIN membership fees

The discipline process will follow the guidelines found in Matthew 18:15-17. If at any point in the discipline process the member refuses to cooperate with AIN leadership, the member is subject to immediate dismissal from the organization.

1. The discipline matter will be discussed by the individual member and AIN leadership.
2. If the information is found to be inaccurate, the matter is resolved and no further disciplinary action is necessary.
3. If the information is accurate and the person is repentant, a plan of restoration will be initiated and implemented by AIN leadership.
4. If the information is accurate and the person is not repentant, an additional meeting with AIN leadership will be scheduled. Every effort will be made to resolve the situation at this point.
5. If resolution is not reached, the person will be dismissed as a member of AIN.

I have read the Discipline Process for AIN members. I am in agreement and willing to adhere to the above guidelines as a member of AIN.
